1.1.51
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant written in Trinity Episcopal Church in downtown Tulsa Theodore Cottingham, July 4, 2003
www.NewCovenant.me

1. I am giving you entree into the halls of orthodoxy, and I am doing it today, and with this, where you are, being evidence, initial evidence. I am giving you entree into their leadership and those that quest after Me who have gone as far as they know how. And Ted, in My love, and in your humility, you will touch them for Me and help place their hand in My hand in new dimensions of the wave of My glory.

2. You Ted. Shrink not back from the positions and palaces I take you into, for Me. Increase, expand, grow, mature in humility—in love first, in humility second. Ted, humility. Ted, respect for who they are and what they've done and where they've come from, and Ted, where I'm taking them. And I am taking many, many multitudes, with Me in My big world, on the journey of their lives. Respect, love, humility, Me, will open doors I have for you to walk through—the arches—the pinnacles of power you will discuss Me in, and through them will I walk you, in humility, in humility, in humility.

3. Oh Ted, please, please, please let Me use you in these ways, and fall not to one side or the other, or be delayed, diverted, or destroyed in your quest to do what I want done. I will do it. Remember Ted, you don't do it, I do it. I do it. I've done it. The way is open, these doors of orthodoxy are open, and can only be accessed by My love, and My humility embraced fully by the nimble heart. The nimble heart, the moldable heart, the heart I shape for My purposes, for My people, for My hand to their heart.

4. Humility, humility, humility. Ted, lose it and you lose, we all lose. Increase it, and we all win. Much responsibility, for much love must come and flow through you to My people.

5. Ted, no arrogance, no judgment, no condemnation, no guilt can you put or place or even think onto My people that I walk you into, to be with and share Me and celebrate Me and salve them by means of Me, through your respect and humility and honor of them.

6. You do Me honor when you honor them. Ted, please remember this word forever.

7. You honor Me when you honor them. You honor them on dirt floors and you honor the robed-over in splendor of gold, glass and brass, residing in marbled archways of majesty, man's majesty.

8. Now love and respect and humble be and reflect Me in every thought and honor them, and I will let you share Me with them, as I shared with Abraham. You will take and you will be bread and wine to them, for you will bread and wine them to Me, and take no prominence in their life or role that I only can have.

9. You Ted, steward Me and I will lead, guide, provide and Ted, humble yourself mightily, greatly in deference to My people, so they can hear Me and not feel your arrogance, or the wounds of the past through your thoughts.

10. Stand up, lead, and be led of Me, My Spirit, for it's not by might, not by power, but by My Spirit saith the Lord God of Host, your friend. I have My hand out to you today, and appreciate you taking it and not being afraid of walking in the halls of power, marble, glass and brass, stone and marble and archways representing thousands of years of history between Me and My people.

11. Ted, go, walk, softly walk, tenderly speak, and let nothing rob your peace and your continuous learning of Me and allowing Me to teach, train you, and mobilize My young, mobilize My forces, mobilize My women, mobilize My lambs, mobilize My ethnic groups, mobilize My non-ethnic groups, Ted, mobilize My one, and be one. One Ted. One.

12. Now thank Mary Lu and come and pray here, and I will take and open many doors to you that you cannot see and don't even now know exists. Do not shrink back from My power but release Me in your humility and honor of all My people, all, all, all. I said all and I mean all.

13. Careful be, much more careful be with your words and your thoughts of others, family, and those you least understand.

14. My body is big and My ways are fathomless and creativity will soar and networks will develop and trust will come forth that is from My hand to you, and the halls of orthodoxy, if you will let it, if you will let Me. Humble be, deferring be, honoring be, and Ted, thank you.

15. Now honor Mary Lu in all you do, Mary Lu Cochran, and I will honor her and I will honor you for honoring My people, My creation of My hand, and resources you will never lack.

16. I am. You are. One be.
I am. You are. One be.
I am. You are. One be.
I am.
Thank you.
One.

17. Me Ted.
One.